TO THE WEST! TO THE WEST!

Before making your arrangements to follow the advice of the "thousands who have already gone," it would be well to consider what has been done to make the journey to your "Homes in the West" as pleasant and free from danger as human skill and foresight can accomplish.

By consolidation and construction, a road has been put into operation on the shortest possible line from Nashville, Tenn., to St. Louis, "the future great City of the world." This line, the has, during the past year, earned an enviable reputation by its smooth track, prompt time, sure connections, and the magnificence of its passenger equipment. Its trains are made up of new and commodious day cars, provided with the celebrated Miller coupler and platform, and the Westinghouse air-brake.

It is positively the only line running Pullman Palace Drawing-Room Sleeping Cars through without change from Nashville to St. Louis. No other line pretends to offer such advantages, either in distance, time, or equipment. Why, then, journey by circuitous routes? Do not be induced to purchase tickets to St. Louis or the West by any other line, remember that is the shortest, cheapest, quickest, best and only line under one management from Nashville to St. Louis, and is from 60 to 200 miles the shortest to St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Denver, California, Texas, and all western points. It is also the "Chicago Shortest Line," via Evansville.

You can secure the cheapest rates for yourselves and your movables on application, in person or by letter, to CHARLES McCABE, Southern Passenger Agent, near College street Depot, Nashville, Tenn., or to the undersigned.

General Ticket Agent, St. Louis.

"The Radical Slate."

Although rather ahead of time, the Radicals are already making up their nominations for next year. Judge Russell, it is said, is to be run for Congress from this District, Solicitor Cantwell expects to step into Judge Russell's old shoes, and Geo. W. Price, Jr., colored, present City Marshal, proposes to run for Mayor for the next term. But Homme propose, mais Dieu dispose.

Thus speaks the Journal; kindly making the nominations above referred to, without consulting the wishes or sentiments of the Republican party.

The Republicans are abundantly able to take care of themselves, without asking or accepting advice and dictation from its most pronounced enemies.—When the proper time arrives, the Republican party will nominate through its regular channel, and the masses of the people will sustain and support its candidates. Political jobbers and rings may make up slates, but the strength of the party, assembled in convention, will act for the public good, and rely on the patriotism and sense of the people for countenance. All good Republicans, and all truly conservative citizens, will support the nominees of the only National party in our midst, for they must be convinced by this time that no good can result from sustaining men who only stand upon sectional platforms.

The Republican party contains an abundance of men well worthy of public confidence, and thoroughly entitled to the support of all who truly desire the adoption of progress in the right direction. Such men as Abbott, McKay, Russell, French, Cantwell, Allen, Sutton, McLean, Guthrie, Robertson, Mabson, J. C. Blocker, McDonald, Etheridge, Maultsby and so many others equally capable and deserving, that we have not space to name them. The above gentlemen are mentioned because their names occur at the present moment, without expressing a preference for them above the others, whose names are not mentioned.

As to the Judgeship and the Solicitorship, we are not deficient in legal talent for those places. From among such lawyers as the Londons, Cantwell, Mabson, Frazier, Russell, Sutton, Stanley, Allen, McLean and others, the people of this district will select a candidate who can command the support of his party, and the respect of all.

The duties of the Mayor of this city are now worthily administered by a gentleman who has won golden opinions from all sorts of people, even including the Democrats, and when the period comes to fill the office, the names of such available men as the present incumbent, Price, Chadbourn, Burney, Martin and others whose record is such that it cannot be impeached can be selected from.

In conclusion, we will say that, notwithstanding the fact that some of the judicial districts, being inconvenient, ought to be remodeled, as the Journal has said, we will elect our candidates for Judge, Solicitor, and Mayor; and should the Legislature have the effrontery to again gerrymander the State, the time will come when those who did it will call on the mountains to cover them.

The Raleigh News says that Mr. Burruss, the telegraphic operator at that place has been ordered to Wilmington. Mr. Burruss won a host of friends in Raleigh who part with him reluctantly, and the News commends him to Wilmingtonians as a first-class operator and a perfect gentlemen.

Speaking of the Rocky Mount cotton mills, the Tarboro Southerner says: "There are at present 64 looms and 1,800 spindles in operation, but it is proposed to increase the capacity this fall to 100 looms and 3,000 spindles, this machinery having been purchased and is now being shipped—100 hands are constantly employed. Yarns and brown goods are manufactured, which are readily disposed of at good prices in the markets of New York and Philadelphia."

The Raleigh News acknowledges having made a mistake in saying that Maj. Hearne had severed his connection with the Era and would locate at Statesville. They are now reliably informed that Maj. Hearne has still the management of the Era and has no intention of moving from Raleigh.

EDITORIAL BUDGET.

— Ex-President Johnson called upon Comptroller Knox, at the Treasury Department, Monday, and had a long conversation relative to his claim against the First National bank of this city. The Ex-President feels encouraged to hope that he will get his money back.

— The Utes and Crows paid a visit to the tomb of the Father of his Country (not theirs) on Saturday in charge of Agent Adams and Dolan. They are said to have wept profusely, (in a horn) and, after inspecting the grounds and the place, returned in the evening.

— Ghosts are odd fishes, and seldom go in couples, but a newly married pair of Troy people have been driven out of their chosen home by the apparitions of a man and woman that would come in each night and disagreeably glide around, passing through walls where there were no doors, and never taking the trouble to go around chairs and tables, but always through them.

— Three years ago some prominent Methodists started a subscription for the erection of a suitable monument over the grave of Phillip Embury, the father of American Methodism, at Cambridge, Washington county, New York. To-day the dedicatory exercises will take place, consisting of addresses, &c., by distinguished divines of the Metodist denomination.

— Some of the Nevada people are stirring up the question of dividing the public school moneys for sectarian purposes—a good subject, perhaps, to keep up a little excitement in a new country but one which has received the emphatic condemnation of the people of the older States for the last half century.

— Governor Dix has ordered that on the 1st of December a referee shall hear testimony against District Attorney Britton for illegal action in his prosecution of F. G. Shanks, city editor of the New York Tribune. The People's Reform Association of Brooklyn (late the committee of fifty) adopted a resolution Monday night condemning the imprisonment of Mr. Shanks, of the Tribune.

— A sanguinary fight took place on Sunday among a band of Indians encamped on Jordan river, who had become maddened with liquor furnished them in Salt Lake City. Guns, knives and bludgeons were used. One Indian was instantly killed, and several others wounded. The inhabitants in the vicinity of the encounter were obliged to stand guard over their houses to protect their families. Business prospects are more encouraging, and there is generally a hopeful feeling.

— A colored man is acting mayor of Oil City, Pa. The curious way in which he has attained this high distinction is described by the Erie Dispatch thus. "The elected mayor, Mr. Sowers, having been elected to the office of county treasurer, his resignation gives to the councilman having the highest number of votes an opportunity to step into his official shoes, and this devolves upon Miles Green, a colored man, who it is said owes his election principally to the Democrats, who voted for him with the idea that they were perpetrating a first class joke."

— It is expected that a bill will be introduced in the next Congress providing that hereafter all government marine hospitals shall be built of wood instead of stone. The plan contemplates the destruction of the wooden hospitals at the end of every ten years, by which time it is supposed they would become infected with disease. The new plan is claimed to be more economical and healthful. General Butler is understood to be committed to this policy.

— Set it down as absolutely cetain that within five years we shall have:

1. A Postal Savings Bank.
2. A government telegraph.
3. A Bureau of Railroads and Transportation.
4. Free Banking,

The monopolists and the rings may fight these measures and succeed in postponing them for a time, but they are certain to come.

— A gentleman in the South, largely interested in educational matters, in writing to a government official, says: "I am more and more possessed with the absolute necessity of some provision for the future of our section. There will always be more or less prejudice, for prejudices always go with ignorance against Northern teachers; but I'll take the bull by the horns and send our youth to help our poor, struggling country." The official to whom this was addressed states that the letter comes from a very prominent educator in his State, who is himself at the head of an educational institution, and who, it seems, has determined to send his children North.

Jennie Daily, the "wickedest woman of Indianapolis," is going to retire to Europe on her $300,000, while virtue goes on being its own reward.

Curiosities of Superstition.

Louis Napoleon in his will emphasizes the solemn declaration: "With regard to my son let him keep as a talisman the seal I used to wear attached to my watch." This piece of fetichism would appear to have formed yet another link between the imperial exile that has passed from our midst and those Latin races whose cause he affected to represent, whose superstition he certainly shared. Indeed, the ancient Romans degraded a priest because his miter fell, and unmade a dictator because a rat squeaked. Cæsar crossed the Rubicon because on the opposite bank he saw a man with a fine figure. His nephew felt confident of winning the battle of Actium because he met a peasant of the name Nicolaus mounted on an ass. Wolsey was warned of his doom by a crosier-head; Sejanus by a flight of crows. Dr. Johnson objected to going under a ladder. Montaigne avoided giving his left foot priority in putting on his stockings.

Alexander was believed to have untied the Gordian knot with a slice of his sword. For good luck's sake, Augustus wore some portion of a sea calf; Charlemagne some trinket of unknown value. Mahomet was all fate; Bonaparte all star and destiny. Cromwell believed in September 3, and Louis Napoleon in December 2. Sulla called himself Felix, the favored child of fortune, and Timoleon turned his house into a temple of chance. Alexander, if we may credit the account given by Quintus Curtius, was terrified by blood flowing from inside his soldiers' bread during the siege of Tyre in 332 B. C. His seer, Aristander, foresaw in this crimson efflux of the vital stream out of the commissariat a happy issue for the Macedonians, and the warriors thus nerved took Tyre. From the year 1004 the alarming spectacle of the bleeding host and bread, as well as the bewitched bloody milk, several times in each century, gave simple folk a scare; thus, it was noticed in 1264, under Urban IV, at Bolsena, not far from Civita Vecchia; and Raphael has taken this for the subject of his picture called the "Miraculo de Bolsena," which is, at all events, a miracle of the pencil.

In 1383, when Heinrich Von Bulow destroyed the village and church of Wilsnach, drops of blood were found eight days afterward on the host placed on the altar. But the victims of superstition have the bump of casuality remarkably developed; and in 1510, thirty-eight Jews were burned to ashes because they had tortured the consecrated host until it bled. Again, the sight was seen on the Moselle in 1824; and in 1848 the famous Ehrenberg analyzed the terrible portent. After stooping with his microscope over the red stains on bread, cheese, and potatoes, this savant declared that they are caused by small monads of vibrois, which have a red color, and so minute that from 46,656,000,000 is 884,736,000,000 distinct beings adorn the space of one cubic inch. Unfortunately, when, in 1510, thirty-eight Israelites, as we have seen, were burned to ashes, no scientific Ehrenburg existed to point out to those superstitious butchers that what they called a proof of the consecrated host being tortured until it bled was merely due to an aggregation of hungry red insects.—Chambers' Journal.

WAIFS.

In a letter to a friend, a Springfield young lady states that she is not engaged, but she sees a cloud above the horizon about as large as a man's hand.

A Chicago druggist asked a woman what she wanted of arsenic, and she replied, "I want it for rats and my old man." Her frankness stopped the sale.

"I always knew that John's love was unremitting," said a gentleman friend to a lady who complained that her husband had not sent her any money since his absence from home.

Mrs. Louisa Chandler says that "she who rocks the cradle rules." Let the strong-minded sisterhood beware, then, how they surrender the privilege of rocking the cradle to their miserable husbands.

The young ladies of a country seminary are puzzled over the exact meaning of the following inscription, recently discovered on the wall of the building: "Young ladies should set good examples, for young men will follow them."

A Detroit wife asks a divorce from her husband for six different reasons. Reason number six is that "he puts hot potatoes in her hands and then mashes them by squeezing her fingers." That is sufficient. History records nothing more diabolical.

Observer, U. S. A.

STEAMBOAT men report the river very low with not more than seven feet of water on the shoals.

THE hospitalities of the genial Van Amringe will be forced upon Charles Harp for the next thirty days.

THE bill of indictment against the alleged "Carter murderers," is before the Grand Jury. In all probability the case will be tried to-morrow.

BY A private circular we learn that there is only one printer working at Shreveport. The balance either have fallen victims to the fever or fled the city.

THERE was a very perceptible change in the weather last night, and this morning thin coatings of ice could be seen in buckets, etc., containing water, left out overnight.

THE schooner Gettysburg, which was pulled off the North Breakers yesterday, where she grounded a few days ago, is now afloat, and will, we presume, be brought to the city soon.

THE LARGEST AND CHAPEST STOCK ever brought to this market is to be found at H. HANSTEIN & CO'S
New York House,
tf 15 Market st.

Nothing has been heard from Capt. Geo. Morrison to-day, as the telegraph wires are down. We but speak the sentiment of the entire community in wishing him much better.

THE PLACE to save twenty-five per cent. is to buy your Clothing, Shoes, Dry Goods, &c., at MESSRS. BINFORD, CROW & CO., have a full line of fresh groceries on hand, just received per northern steamers.—Country merchants would do well to call on them, as they are offering inducements. See advertisement.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:—Your attention is called to the great bargains of Fall and Winter Goods at
S. HANSTEIN & CO'S
New York House,
tf 15 Market st.

YESTERDAY afternoon a lady who has been making extensive preparations for the entertainment of delegates to the Synod which meets to-night, was approached by her house servant, who is a little more particular than housemaids are generally, and asked if the pantry floor mustn't be scoured again, as there were one or two grease spots on it. The lady told her maid that there were other things to be done far more important just then, and that she could not have it scoured. The girl lifted her hands in holy horror, ejaculating, "The Lord knows I wouldn't have dem sinner to come dar and see dem grease spots on dat floor for nuthing."

THE TOWN CRIER.

— Cool.

— Gold is 108½.

— Business is only so-so.

— Mighty cold last night.

— Fair in Weldon this week.

— Have samples for the Fair.

— Try the Schillinger pavement.

— Overcoats are now in demand.

— The Amateur Concert has been postponed.

— Harry Webb's 11 o'clock lunch is quite an institution.

— What becomes of all the noise caused by rattling windows these windy nights? Cannot it be utilized some way?

— "When are the Carter murderers to be tried?" is the hourly interrogatory propounded to the officials, all of whom incontinently give it up.

— Col. Waddell will deliver his lecture at the Opera House next Friday night. If the attendance is no better than at the Concert, but little funds will be raised for the Asylum.

THE telegraph wires somewhere between Lumberton and Rockingham on the Carolina Central Railway are down. It is doubtful whether they will be placed in position to-day but if not, will be ready for work to-morrow morning.

THE work of laying the Schillinger pavent in front of Messrs. Murchison & Giles' new store on Front street, was commenced this morning. We are pleased to see that this handsome and popular pavement which is used to some extent in other cities, is growing popularity with our citizens.

DR. M. J. DEROSSET, a former resident of Wilmington but lately of Baltimore, has returned to his native home and once more casts his lot in with us. The Doctor was a very successful Oculist of Baltimore, and after perfecting himself in this speciality in northern cities he returns among us, and offers his professional services to the public. Office south side of Market street adjoining the residence of Hon. S. N. Martin.

Mayor's Court.

His Honor W. P. CANADAY, Mayor presiding.

Charles Harp, charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $10 and costs, or 30 days in the workhouse.

John Smith was fined $5 for disorderly conduct.

Rich Crawford, charged with being disorderly, insulting, and striking a policeman, was fined $25 and costs.

SUPERIOR COURT.—After we went to press yesterday, the Court disposed of the following:

Joshua Loften, burglary. Plead guilty of larceny.
Roney Davis, forgery. Guilty.
Sam Larkins, A. and B. Guilty.
Frank Conyers, bastardy. Dismissed.
Robert Loften, bastardy. Dismissed.
Samuel Rockhill, bastardy. Dismissed.

This morning Court met at 10:30, and disposed of the following cases:

D. Holmes, A. and B. Nol pros.
Jim Freeman and Amy Sharpless, F. and A. Jury still out.
Lawyer Dockery, larceny. Guilty.
Do. do. do. Nol pros.

BROUGHT TO GRIEF.—On Monday night last some one stole a cap from the window of Mr. Jacob Lyon's store, on the corner of Market and North Water street. Mr. Lyon thought that the thief would come again in search of what he might devour, and yesterday evening tied a strong piece of twine to a cap and placed it in the window. He had not waited long before a young rascal came up, looked cautiously around, and was just in the act of taking the cap, when he was frightened off by some one coming from the direction of the Post Office. Waiting a few minutes, and thinking the coast was clear, he sailed up to his expected booty, gave it a pull, and started off, with Mr. Lyon after him. He was soon caught and carried to the lock-up, where he spent the night, and this morning his case was adjudicated by the Mayor.

"OUT OF CHANGE."—Last night, between 8 and 9 o'clock, a bronzed son of the sea, about "half seas over," stepped into a well known bar, and called for "some (hic) of your best (hic) gin."—The desired article was placed upon the counter; the worshipper of Bacchus filled his glass to the brim, drank heartily, and started off without even showing the bar-tender the color of the wherewithal—the goal of his ambition. He was asked to ante up for the drink, which he declined doing, as he was out of change, and turned upon the proprietor, calling him very uncomplimentary names. The police took charge of him, and this morning the follower of Neptune "paid dearly for his whistle."

ST. NICHOLAS.—This magazine for the youngsters is out at last. We have patiently waited for some time for its appearance, and it fully sustains Messrs. Scribner & Co.'s reputation for publishing first class magazines. It will at once take its place among the first class magazines, and no family having growing-up children in their circle can afford to do without this publication.—We have heard several remark, upon a brief inspection of the work, that they should order it at once for their children. Pictorially, it is one of the most beautiful magazines in the country, being enriched by designs from the pencils of Miss Hallock, Sol Eytinge, Miss Ledyard, Sheppard, Stephens, Bolles, Beard, and others.

The reading matter is varied and bright. There are thirty-three articles, some for the very little ones, some for the oldest of young people, and some for every age between. We find in its broad, well-printed pages, poems by William Cullen Bryant, Celia Thaxter, Lucy Larcom, and others. There is a capital human-fairy sketch by Rebecca Harding Davis. Donald G. Mitchell contributes a characteristic article, entitled "Who Wrote the Arabain Nights?" and the first chapters of a serial story by Frank R. Stockton are given. A salutatory by the conductor, Mrs. Mary Mapes Dodge, is sure to reach the heart of every child-reader—and the hearts of their fathers and mothers as well. Among the stories we find a charmingly-told account of a fairy's visit to a bee-hive, by Annie Moore; an exceedingly funny little story by Margaret Eytinge, and lively tales by Paul Fort and J. S. Stacy. Lucretia P. Hale tells the adventures of a doll, Noah Brooks has a capital article for boys, called "By the Sea," and Olive Thorne talks about a certain "Old-Fashioned Hat." There are also interesting descriptions of zebras, passenger-pigeons, the curious inhabitants of the Farallone Islands, and the Piute Indians, besides bright little "jingles" and a whole page in large type for little children with big eyes. We must not forget to mention as an admirable feature a short story in German for the benefit of youngsters who are learning that language. A similar French story is announced for the next number. Then "Jack-in-the-pulpit," a curious fellow who is full of little bits of wit and wisdom, holds forth most entertainingly; and there are capital notices of juvenile books, intended for those who will read the books, and a puzzle department that will certainly sharpen the wits of the youngsters.

St. Nicholas is published by Scribner & Co., 654 Broadway, New York, at $3 per annum.

Arrangements are expected to be made whereby most of the factories will be able to keep the hands at work part of the time at least, thereby preventing a great deal of suffering.
